

Sowing and Reaping Eternal Life

Galatians 6:6-10

The Big Picture:

Our thoughts and actions deeply affect our relationship with God and others.

Let the one who is taught the word share all good things with the one who teaches. ⁷Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. ⁸For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. ⁹And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. ¹⁰So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Galatians 6:6-10 (English Standard Version)

Key Point for Galatians 6:6:

Honor and thank those in your life who are devoted to teaching your family about the Word of God.

Let the one who is taught the word share all good things with the one who teaches.
Galatians 6:6 (ESV)

Key Point for Galatians 6:7-9:

A life lived for God does not happen by accident, but includes intentionality, discipline, and endurance.

Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap.
Galatians 6:7 (ESV)

For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. Galatians 6:8 (ESV)

And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.
Galatians 6:9 (ESV)

Key Point for Galatians 6:10:

Selfish and sinful desires prefer being served rather than serving others.

So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. Galatians 6:10 (ESV)
